Pansy, Local Goat, Rehearses Big Role As 'Teahouse' Star

A Quiet Oriental flavor, sparked by strictly American human characters, John Patrick's delightful Fynteowne of the August Moon was presented in District Auditorium October 22, 23, and 24.

Set amid Geisha girls and unsmiling Chinese, this Wooster Little Theatre production is the story of the Army's attempt to civilize an Okinawan village, and the repercussions which occur when the G.I.'s become sympathetic with the villagers for a place to stage for a big role in Wooster productions are the four leading cast members: Pansy, Lina, Cherry, and Jack. Jack, a senior biology major from Hudson, Ohio, will play the native translator, Saku. The roles of Colonel Fushan and Captain Frasiel will be portrayed by freshmen Don DeMoss of Midland, Ohio, and Jim Hall of Bonita, Maryland.

Children to appear in the production are Richard and Douglass Drouth, sons of Mr. G. Goron Bower (Dean of the Wooster speech department).

Daddy Long Legs Gallops To Scott

Ad Man Discusses Methods, Motives

"Look at Advertising" will be the topic of Edward B. Tatham, assistant at the next meeting of the Advertising Club, Tuesday, October 22, at 7:15 in Lower Library, sponsored by the Penn and Hanover houses. Mr. Tatham is vice-president of the Advertising Clubocus of America, which he founded.

He will discuss the importance of advertising and the shortage of manpower in the field of advertising, the need that the agency seeks for its staff. In addition, Mr. Tatham will relate methods of motivating the buying people, and relations between this company and its clients.

Before establishing his own agency, Mr. Tatham worked as a copy writer for Howard, Sois- miter of Public Relations in a group truck manufacturing firm and as the Associate Editor of a newspaper.

During the referral period following his talk, Mr. Tatham will answer questions about advertising.

Former President of the Republic, Approve, Cut Dues

Bill Von Tihany was elected president of the Young Republicans Club, Tuesday, October 8, at a meeting in Lower Bakalar. Bill was opposed in the election by the Vice Presidency, the new secretary for Senior Republican, Ted Chester. Kent. Three weeks ago, he was elected to the State Organization by the students of the Republican party, past Young President of the Ohio College Republicans.

The group approved the Can- ton charter, which was shown to in- press that the Canton would become a forum for political events on the campus. Bill Harrington pointed out that the Club was very fortunate in having Bob Swab as its first speaker to present to the Congress.

Students Hold Campaign

E. J. Stephen was appointed to head this year's membership campaign, which is in progress. Von Tihany pointed out that this year the Club is attempting to avoid slicing the annual dues from 1.00 to 3.50 per member.

The President also reminded those present that this year participating in the political campaign by sponsoring a poll of the city of Woost- ers, and all students will be able to cast their ballots.

Dear Alumni Apprentice:

In response to your letter of October 3, we wish to make a few observations.

(1) We feel that if you feel as many about your college as you do about your college, then you should not confine your remarks to Wooster alone, but rather should extend them to the entire student body.

(2) We feel that it is possible to build a college that will have the desiderata and need for education and for the college spirit that one feels the desire to fulfill that need.

(3) This campus, or any other campus for that matter, could have a hundred Unions and Shocks, or none at all, or it could have one Union and Union, if one has a mind to.

(4) We have learned that one of the shock rats made the Dean's List. We think that this fact speaks well for sincerity.

Sincerely,

Skippers Set Sails For Active Season

The Skipper sailors have been active the past two weekends representing the University Involuntary Quadrilateral Regatta on October 4, and the Ohio State University Fall Involuntary Regatta this past weekend.

As host to Ohio Wesleyan University, Oberlin University, and Ohio State University, Wooster completed the round robin races on Saturday—with Ohio Wesleyan finishing first place by one point—21 to 20 for the Skippers.

Regatta Results

This past weekend, club members traveled to Columbus, Ohio, to compete in the competition against Ohio State, Purdue, and the University of Illinois. Ohio Wesleyan, Wayne University, and Oberlin were invited to participate in the close of the two-day regatta, sailed in both still and light winds. Wooster took fifth place in the final race, but the club came in at 8 points behind Michigan, fourth, and Ohio State in second and third places with 120 and 95 points respectively.
